Thought for the day

their training and access BSA Youth Protection
Training at any time through My.Scouting.org. For a registered volunteer to get credit for completing this training, they should have their account in My.Scouting linked with their membership ID. Start Den Breakout

Make the Crossing Over Ceremony EXCITING and FUN

Why?

Transition time (crossing over) is important to the Scout, as it is the next big step in a Scouting career.

It is also important to the health of the Scout troop. Having a transition plan that includes the Scout, the family, the pack, and the troop is the key to successful transition. Smooth and effective transition through the ranks and into a troop will be helpful in retention of the Scout.

The local pack(s) and troop(s) should work together.

The transition may or may not be a part of a pack meeting. If it is, the pack meeting agenda will need to include he crossover ceremony, and the time necessary for it.

Is the Crossover Ceremony just for the Arrow Scouts?

Why?

Keeping the Webelos program front and center of the pack—along with the crossover ceremony—will create a visual enticement for the Lion, Tiger, Wolf, and Bear Scout to continue to work hard. Seeing the age-appropriate activities and camping opportunities as well as troop interaction will make them aspire to the Eagle rank.

Who should have a role in the Crossover Ceremonies?

Why?

Troop visits—When the Cub Scout transitions into a Scouts BSA troop, there should be a feeling of comfort and familiarity with the troop being joined. If you are in a large area with many units, how do you share contact information for all of the packs and troops?

Discuss the Cubmaster's role in the transition process. Review the pack responsibilities in the Webelos to Scouts BSA Transition Plan. Discussion may include having den chiefs from the troop and planning Webelos overnight activities

Discuss the committee's role in the transition process. Review the Webelos to Scouts BSA Transition Plan.
Discussions could include involving the unit commissioner or your Service Area chairperson and comparing calendars with the troop and pack to coordinate activities.

What is one of the goals of the Crossover Ceremonies?

Why?

Lion to Scouts BSA

It should be the goal of the Cubmaster and Webelos den leaders to graduate every Webelos Scout into a Scouts BSA troop. The key to accomplishing this is to begin promoting Scouts BSA when Cub Scouts are still in their Lion, Tiger, Wolf, and Bear dens, and to "sell the sizzle" of the great outdoors.

Scouting should be viewed as an ongoing adventure, and the progression should be as normal as moving from elementary school to middle school.

Crossover Ceremonies (Sample pg1)

Preparation:

A leader holds a Bobcat badge; a Tiger holds a Tiger badge; a Wolf holds a Wolf badge; a Bear holds a Bear badge; a Webelos leader holds a Webelos badge, a den chief holds an Arrow of Light award and a Scoutmaster or senior patrol leader holds a Scouts BSA badge. (Enlarged color print outs may be used as well.)

Space the badges apart so that they form a trail.

Narrator: Tonight, we are honoring some Webelos who are moving forward along the Scouting trail. Will the following Scouts please come forward? (Call the names.) You are taking a giant step—from Cub Scouts to Scouts BSA. We would like to think back on some of the steps you have taken along the way.

(Walk with the Scouts to the Bobcat station.) Remember When you joined Cub Scouts? The, the Scout Law, and the Scout Oath were new to you then. It seemed hard at first, but now you know them well.

(Walk with the scouts to the Tiger station.) At this stop, you worked on adventures that included exploring the world around you and learning to be part of a team.

(Walk with the scouts to the Wolf station.) At this stop, you Worked on adventures that taught you how to howl at the moon and how to help your community.

(Walk with the scouts to the Bear station.) While working on the Bear badge, your adventures were becoming full of responsibility as you earned your Whittling Chip card and learned how to take care of yourself on a campout.

Crossover Ceremonies (Sample pg2)

(Walk with the scouts to the Webelos station.) As Webelos, your adventures continued, becoming more difficult as your skills grew. You explored how to be strong in body and spirit and how to help others in need.

(Walk with the Scouts to the Arrow of Light station.) As you reached for the highest award in Cub Scouting, you learned how you can build a better world and experienced outdoor activities in your Scouting Adventure. All you have learned during your Cub Scout trail has made you better, stronger, and wiser.

(Walk with the Scouts to the Scouts BSA station.) And now you have reached the beginning of a new trail. I would like to introduce your new Scoutmaster and senior patrol leader.

(The Scoutmaster and senior patrol leader take a few moments to welcome the new Scouts.)

Does the troop have it's own Ceremonies

Webelos den leader: Leads the boys to the bridge but do not cross the bridge (In a loud voice calls across the bridge): Hello, Troop Scouts. SPL: (answers in a loud voice): Hello, Arrow Scouts, what do you desire? Webelos den leader: We have Scouts of Akela's council ring who have prepared themselves for Entrance into the council ring of the Troops.
Webelos den leader: (In your own words thank the arrow scouts) (read) Arrow Scouts, you have contributed much to your den and pack, and we shall miss you. Now you are leaving us to enter the Scout troop of your choice. There, we are sure, you will continue to grow in Scouting skills and friendships. Before you go, an important part of your Cub Scout uniform is your neckerchief. Now that you are leaving our pack and Cub Scouting, will you remove your neckerchief and give it to your parent or guardian. (The Arrow Scout removes their neckerchiefs and gives it to their guardian.) The All SPL(s) crosses the bridge and introduced themselves to the Webelos Scout and their parents.)
SPL () : The duties of the Sr. Patrol leader are to lead the troop and to give good instructions. Arrow Scouts you will follow me. Parents and guardians, you will remain here.

Note: It is the Sr. Patrol Leader (Youth) not the Scoutmaster (Adult) leading the troop program.

Final thought

Work together with the Troops and possible other packs in the area to provide a Crossover program that will excite all the scouts to continue in the program.

Questions Comment?

Let's go on to our Hot Topic

Religious Awards

RELIGIOUS AWARDS

BSA Declaration of Religious Principle

- ▶ BSA maintains that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing an obligation to God and, therefore, recognizes the religious element in the training of the member, but it is absolutely nonsectarian in its attitude toward that religious training.
- ▶ BSA policy is that the home and organization or group with which the member is connected shall give definite attention to religious life.

All scouts share the same Oath and Law:

Scout Oath: "Duty to God"

Scout Law: "Reverent"

A Scout is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties. He respects the beliefs of others.

- Wolf Duty to God Footsteps
- Bear Fellowship and Duty to God
- Webelos Duty to God and You

- Step I: Youth members must obtain the specific booklet for their religion.
 - Use the "Duty to God" brochure to identify the program for your faith.
 - Check with your council store or contact the religious organization directly.
 - Each Scout needs his own booklet to document progress.
 - Some religions offer adult manuals for counselors and mentors.

- ▶ Step 2: Parents must review the program guidelines.
 - Some programs require participants to be official "members" of the religious institution.
 - ▶ Age/grade requirements vary from program to program.
 - Each program sets its own guidelines as to who may serve as counselor. Some programs require clergy to serve as counselors; other programs allow parents or other family members to serve as counselors.

- Step 3: Families should talk to their religious leaders and show them the booklet before beginning any program.
 - Most programs require that they be completed under the auspices of that religious organization.
 - Many programs require the signature of the local religious leader.

- Step 4: The youth member needs to complete the requirements, obtain the proper signatures, and follow the instructions to order the emblem.
 - These emblems are not available from your local council store (follow instructions in your booklet).
 - The emblem should be presented in a meaningful ceremony, preferably in the member's religious institution.
 - The award can be presented at anytime of the year. Boy Scout Sunday/Sabbath in February is a perfect time to recognize recipients.

Scouts Trash the Trash Day

Event Details

Date: Saturday, May 7 2022 Location: Your own community!

Scouts Trash the Trash Day is an international Messengers of Peace project for Scouts around the world, where each Scout is challenged to bring a friend or family member along and pick up at least one Kilo (2.2 pounds) of trash each on the first Saturday in May.

The idea for Scouts Trash the Trash Day came from the scouts of Troop 1206 in Helena, Montana after realizing that there are several days throughout the year that Scouts get together and do the same thing on the same day. Days like Jamboree on the Air and Internet, Jamboree on the Trail, Trees for the World, World Neckerchief Day, but there was not a day for Scouts to all get together and clean up their communities. Thus Scouts Trash the Trash Day was started. Scouts are asked to bring a non-scout with them on this day of service in order to double the impact of their trash cleaning effort.

Scouts Trash the Trash Day is about more than just cleaning our planet, it is a day to show the world what Scouting is about, educate individuals about Scouting and recruit new boys, girls and adults into the Scouting movement.
